Maroon Lake and Maroon Bells near Aspen, Colorado.

Hi folks,
This area is definitely the most beautiful I've ever seen. I sure would not mind living here. Our first day driving we made it to Terre Haute Ind. & the second day to Topeka. We got into Denver the 3rd day. Right now we're camped in Aspen. yesterday we drove to the top of Mt. Evans - the highest peak in the Rockies. We camped in a Nat. Forest campground about 10,000 FT up the mountain. It was darn cold at night, but the views of the surrounding area & the incredibly clear sky made it worth it. RCB Tomorrow we head for the Grand Canyon. Karen
